Thank you for celebrating our place in motorcycle history. The Hog Daze Motorcycle Rally celebrates the Cornfield Classic, a significant event from 1919 and 1920 that has already been printed in multiple publications. We think you will also find the charitable history quite impressive, and we plan to continue our support to child-based charities by incorporating fundraisers such as the Ms. Hog Daze Pin-up Contest into our annual event. Ms. Hog Daze was introduced in 2015 and has become a staple part of the motorcycle rally. Thank YOU for making this possible!

HOW TO ENTER:

Must be at least 18 with valid I.D. to participate in the Ms. Hog Daze Pin-Up Contest.

Model Application must be completed in its entirety and submitted by either email to marionhogdaze@gmail.com, web form, or hand-deliver to photographer on the day of your scheduled photoshoot.

Entry fee of $100 can be paid by sponsor or by individual. If you need help connecting with a sponsor, please communicate with the 2018 Ms. Hog Daze Facebook Group.

We are looking for a specific 1950s vintage pin-up look. We want to represent the classic pin-up girl contest. Please bring appropriate attire to your photoshoot. If you do not have any outfits, please communicate with the 2018 Ms. Hog Daze Facebook Group. We have plenty of people willing to share resources.

Contest photo must be scheduled by our head photographer, Jennifer Gray. To schedule your photo shoot, please contact jengrayhogdaze@gmail.com or 765-618-0668.

The Pin-Up committee will decide which photos will be approved for use on the contest page, but the model will have the opportunity to review photos and give input. All photos are owned by Home of the Hog and Indiana Motorcycle Preservation Society. Contestants will receive a copy of all photos taken.

ONLINE VOTING RULES:

The contest begins ONLINE. Each models contest photo and profile information will be published on our contest site on Monday, June 4.

Online votes consist of $1 per vote and payable online on the Ms. Hog Daze Contest page. All funds are deposited to the Indiana Motorcycle Preservation Society account.

Voters can vote an unlimited amount of time during the online contest dates, June 4 – August 5. Online voting will continue for the Top Ten Contestants ONLY. Cash donations must be deposited and entered as online votes to count for the online contest. Cash not submitted online by deadline must be brought to the main event and collected by the Ms. Hog Daze Coordinator, Chaya Turney.

Contestants may collect cash donations during the online dates. See MAIN EVENT section on page two for more details on voting during the Hog Daze Motorcycle Rally.

Online votes WILL carry over to the main event for the TOP TEN.

MAIN EVENT:

Each pin-up in the top ten will have a voting bucket at the main tent to continue collecting donations. The final three pin-ups will be determined by who raised the most donations at the end of the contest. All donations must be turned in by 9:00 p.m. Friday, August 10, to the Ms. Hog Daze Coordinator, Chaya Turney.

Top ten contestants must be at the venue and check in at the pin-up sign-in table next to the bar no later than 5:00 p.m. Wear your best pin up attire and plan to walk the event and collect donations.

Three contestants will be picked as an alternative; they will be picked in the order they were voted online 11th, 12th, and 13th. If you are needed, you will be contacted via a phone call and text message. A bucket will be available at the venue for you to collect donations.

Nudity is strictly prohibited. Any violations will cause immediate disqualification and expulsion from the event.

ALL CONTESTANTS are asked to stay after the contest is over for group pictures. The top ten winners will also be asked for a group photo with the official contest photographer.

Prize money will be distributed after the final photography session.

WHAT DO YOU WIN?

1st Place: Title of Ms. Hog Daze Pin Up 2018 & $500.00

The top three winners will receive a custom trophy and an automatic FREE entry in the 2019 Ms. Hog Daze Pin-Up Contest.
